

Auditorium 232 "Classroom of management and service" is decorated in the form of a trading hall of a restaurant and a bar. The study area is divided into four zones, there are several types of tables (rectangular Banquet, round table for two people; national tea table), chairs for 12 people, bar counter, refrigerators, mirrors, sideboards, a set of dishes and appliances for the bar and restaurant. In this study holds classes on the disciplines of the educational program "Restaurant business and hotel business": "Restaurant and hospitality management", "Planning and organization of catering trade and hotel business", "Culture of restaurant and hotel services", "Technology services in restaurants and hotels", etc. addresses issues of technique and technology of service of guests of different levels, etiquette and rules of conduct of the waiters, bartenders and managers, as well as the rules of serving dishes and service of buffets, banquets for various events. Also, the basis for practical training on the educational program is its own cafe "Millennium".

