

The Office Of Marketing

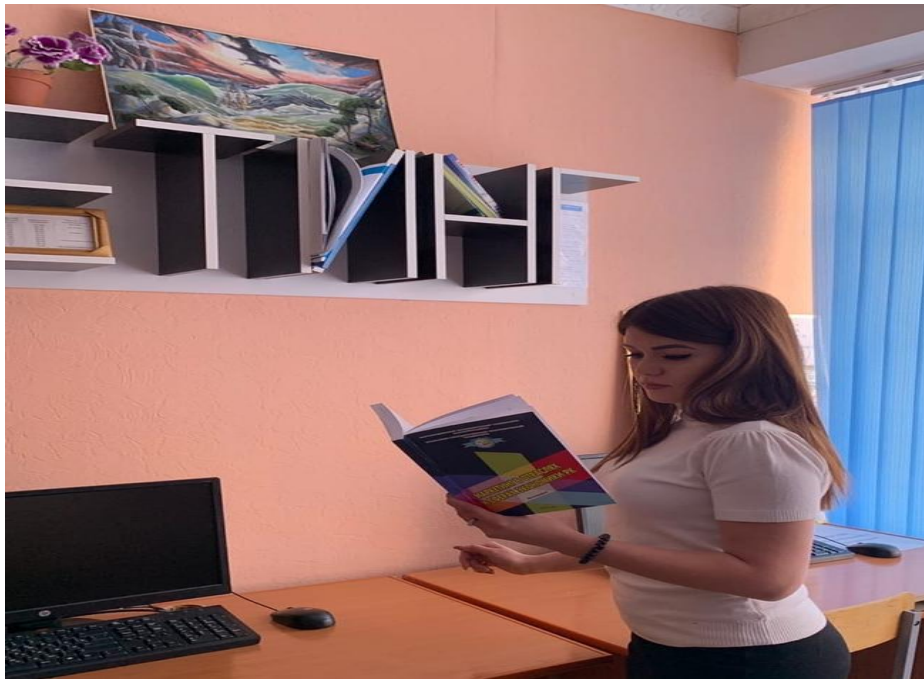

Office "Marketing" is a classroom equipped with modern computers and allows you to visually conduct lectures, seminars, classes on independent work of students with a teacher.

The office of "Marketing" (No. 288) is equipped by design of students-marketers, including the bookshelf stylized under the name of the educational program; the technical detail of audience is turned into artobekt; intermediate doors are illustrated with names of brands.

In computers connected to the Internet, there are training programs, there are electronic textbooks on the disciplines of the educational program; a printer is connected to the student's work.

This audience is necessary to familiarize students with the peculiarities of professional activity, as well as to prepare for classes and research projects. Teachers of the Department are also engaged in classroom 288

